Michigan Stadium Dedication Game in 1927

About the Cover

The cover on the 1977 Michigan Gridiron Guide spotlights a half-century of football in Michigan Stadium. This fall is the Golden Anniversary of the largest college-owned stadium in the nation with 101,701 seats. The first game in this stadium was against Ohio Wesleyan Oct. 1, 1927, won by Michigan 33-0. The dedication game was Oct. 22 against Ohio State, won by Michigan 21-0. Originally built to seat around 72,000 a crowd of 84,243 was reported for the OSU game as more than 10,000 temporary wooden bleachers were installed on the concourse. These were replaced by steel stands in 1949, boosting the capacity to 97,239 and further modifications in 1956 and 1973 increased the stadium to its present capacity.

Michigan's 1977 Football Outlook

Michigan lost nearly 30 per cent of its rushing yardage (Rob Lytle had a record 1469 yards) and 70 per cent of its pass receiving yardage (Jim Smith had 714 yards), but Coach Bo Schembechler remains optimistic about the Wolverine offense. The entire line returns intact, while QB Rick Leach leads a backfield that does have experience and several capable younger players who show promise.

Despite several key losses on the defensive side, spring practice indicated that this unit is developing and could approach the standards set by previous 'M' defenses, which have led the nation in scoring defense four of the past six years.

Here are some observations about the 1977 Wolverines by Schembechler, followed by a sketch of various positions.

"If Rick Leach makes the same improvement this year as he did from his freshman to sophomore year, he'll be some quarterback. I like Stacy Johnson, too."

"John Anderson is a great outside linebacker. He can do it all and has. He's an exceptional punter as well."

"Walt Downing is the premier center in the nation. He has size, speed and he's a winner."

"Mark Donahue missed much of spring practice, but he's a returning All-American and we know what he can do."

"Bill Dufek missed spring practice for the second straight year but he keeps getting better."

"Rick White was the surprise of the spring. He's faster now that he's recovered from knee surgery and we look for him to have an outstanding season."

OFFENSIVE BACKS

Harlan Huckleby (912 yds., 5.9 avg.) and Russell Davis (596 yds., 5.7 avg.) both started last season. Fullback Kevin King impressive in spring, while Ralph Clayton enters soph season as No. 2 tailback. Leach averaged record 7.4 yds. running and passing, also firing record 13 TD passes.

RECEIVERS

Wingback now a flanker with Curt Stephenson moving there from split end, Rick White taking over at split end. Veteran Max Richardson and possibly a freshman could help. Both tight ends (Gene Johnson and Mark Schmerge) return. Jim Smith will be missed.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Could be best in the nation. All-American Mark Donahue, All-Big Tenners Walt Downing and Bill Dufek return along with Mike Kenn, while Greg Bartnick and Gerry Szara battle for guard spot. Several younger players pressing starters. Depth looks good.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Steve Graves (MG) only starter returning. Dale Keitz, Curtis Greer likely replacements for John Hennessy, Greg Morton at tackles. Young players will provide depth. Bob Taylor and Chris Godfrey rate highly.

LINEBACKERS

Michigan terms end positions on five-man line outside linebackers and two positions behind line inside backers. John Anderson (All Big Ten), Dom Tedesco and Tom Seabron return at OLB, while soph Ron Simpkins impressive at ILB. Jerry Meter started on occasion is other ILB with Rex Mackall, Jeff Bednarek, Mel Owens all battling for starting jobs.

SECONDARY

Derek Howard, starting cornerback, will try to fill Jerry Zuver's Wolf position with help from Bob Patek. Talented Dwight Hicks returns at safety and Jim Pickens at shortside halfback. Sophs Mike Harden and Mike Jolly battling for wideside halfback spot. Coaches hope secondary is more aggressive this season.

PLAYER SWITCHES

Curt Stephenson moves from split end to flanker, Lawrence Reid from TB to FB, Derek Howard from DHB to Wolf.

KEY NEWCOMERS

Ralph Clayton — Tried at wingback, moved to tailback. Great speed, good pass receiver.
Bob Taylor — Won No. 2 defensive tackle spot. Former Illinois state wrestling champion has speed, size and could help.
Ron Simpkins — Lettered as freshman, now starting ILB. Won award (John F. Maulbetsch) as top freshman player.
Jeff Bednarek — Another soph ILB. Rates close to Simpkins and figures to play extensively.
John Powers — Great offensive line prospect. Fastest man Coach Jerry Hanlon has had at that spot since he came to 'M' in '69. Could challenge regulars.
Mike Harden — Could start at cornerback, good speed, great future.
Mike Jolly — Another young cornerback. No. 2 last season and battling for starting spot.
Chris Godfrey — Battling for regular defensive tackle position, has size and speed, needs experience.
Lawrence Reid — Exceptional athlete, moved to fullback with chance to play.
Gerald Diggs — One of top backs in Chicago two years ago, has ability to play tailback at Michigan.

Meet Coach Bo Schembechler

"I'm just glad to be back," Michigan football coach Bo Schembechler told a group of sportswriters before the start of the 1976 season. "I could go zero and eleven and still be happy."

That projection of Michigan's football record and his reaction to it might have been stretching a point for Schembechler, but he left little doubt about his enthusiasm for coaching.

Schembechler had decided to undergo open heart surgery to correct artery problems. He was discharged in less than two weeks from the hospital. When his Wolverines opened practice in August, Schembechler was back and ready for the 1976 season.

It was not an 0-11 season, however, but very nearly the opposite. Michigan, rated No. 1 in both wire service polls, stormed through its first eight games before stumbling at Purdue where the "Spoilermakers" added more substance to their reputation for upsets.

"We'll see just what this team is made of in the next two weeks," offered Schembechler. "I would really be surprised if this team did not play inspired football this Saturday against Illinois."

Michigan defeated Illinois 38-7, then administered the first shutout of an Ohio State team in 12 years, posting a 22-0 victory that earned the Wolverines a co-championship of the Big Ten and their seventh trip to the Rose Bowl. The Wolverines lost to Southern California, 14-6, but that did not tarnish a season that included their 27th Big 10 title, a No. 3 rating in the final polls and leadership in several NCAA offensive and defensive categories. Four Wolverines were named All-Americans.

Schembechler is just the 13th coach in Michigan football history. He came from Miami of Ohio where his teams posted a 40-17-3 record (two championships) in six seasons. His first season at Michigan in 1969 produced one of college football's greatest upsets, a 24-12 win over No. 1 rated Ohio State. That shot the Wolverines into the Rose Bowl against Southern Cal.

That was the first of six championships for Schembechler's teams over the last eight seasons as Michigan has posted a remarkable 76-11-3 record.

Schembechler (pronounced SHEM-beck-lur) brought a solid football background to Michigan. A 1951 graduate of Miami of Ohio, Schembechler played offensive tackle for three years under George Blackburn and Woody Hayes. He also was a left-handed pitcher and a roommate of Northwestern's Johnny Pont.

He was a graduate assistant for Hayes at OSU, served in the Army, then was a line coach at Presbyterian College. He coached at Bowling Green and joined Ara Parseghian's staff at Northwestern in 1956 for two years before rejoining Hayes at OSU in 1958. He was appointed head coach at Miami of Ohio in 1963.

Bo and his wife, Millie, have four children, Chip, Geoffrey, Matthew and Glenn E., III.

Wolverines In Review

Michigan 40, Wisconsin 27

September 11 Ann Arbor 101,347

Michigan jumped off to a 23-point first quarter lead, then had to withstand a record Wisconsin aerial assault that produced the most points any team would score on the Wolverine defense all season. The Badgers completed more passes against Michigan than any team in history as Mike Carroll completed 25 of 44 for 268 yards and two touchdowns.

Wisconsin's total offense of 426 caused Coach Bo Schembechler some concern, but Michigan's offensive performance was equal to the task. The Wolverines had 62 plays that netted 455 yards for a 7.3 per play average. Sophomore Harlan Huckleby, who scored Michigan's first touchdown on a 56-yard option play, gained 131 yards, while quarterback Rick Leach, who completed six of eight passes for 105 yards and two touchdowns, averaged 9.3 yards on nine running plays. Huckleby scored three touchdowns and split receiver Jim Smith hauled down scoring passes of 12 and 25 yards. Co-captain Calvin O'Neal led the defense with 18 tackles.

Michigan 51, Stanford 0

September 18 Ann Arbor 103,741

Defense had been the battle-cry all week in Michigan's practice session and the Wolverines responded with a shutout victory, despite being hit with 41 passes. Michigan limited Stanford to 71 yards on the ground.

Harlan Huckleby carried the ball 16 times for 157 as Michigan had three runners with more than 100 yards and rushed for a total of 531. Sophomore Russell Davis exploded on an 85-yard touchdown run, while Jim Smith carried just three times and gained 72 yards. It was one of Michigan's finest exhibitions of rushing in years, falling just 42 yards short of the Wolverines all-time best. Dwight Hicks, who was voted Michigan's top defensive player, underwent surgery on his finger the Monday after the game and was lost for four weeks.

President Ford visited the Wolverines Thursday prior to the game.

Michigan 70, Navy 14

September 25 Ann Arbor 101,040

An inspired Navy team battled Michigan on even terms for two periods, but the Wolverines scored 28 points in a five-minute span in the third quarter to win easily.

Rick Leach fired a 31-yard touchdown pass to Jim Smith with just 27 seconds left in the first half to snap a 14-14 tie. Leach passed for 197 on just eight completions, while Gene Johnson caught his first touchdown pass. Bob Wood tied a Michigan record with nine extra points and his 51-yard field goal also tied a school record. The 70-point total was the highest for a Michigan team since an 85-0 rout of Chicago in 1939. Coach Bo Schembechler was not elated at being rated No. 1 in both polls (advancing there after last week's win.) "We are not great. Today we were outplayed in the first half. We could have been beaten. That's the kind of thing that can happen when you're No. 1.

Michigan 31, Wake Forest 0

October 2 Ann Arbor 103,241

Wake Forest of the Atlantic Coast Conference proved to be a formidable opponent for Michigan on a High School Band Day Saturday. Michigan used a brigade of running backs to produce 340 yards, led by Rob Lytle's 110 yards in just 14 carries. Michigan utilized punt returns (Jim Smith broke a 41-yarder and freshman Michael Harden a 40-yarder), recovered two Wake Forest fumbles and intercepted two passes. Wolverine defenders had 11 sacks for 32 yards in losses. Jerry Zuver was outstanding for Michigan on defense, intercepting one pass, recovering a fumble and breaking up another pass.

Michigan 42, Michigan State 10

October 9 Ann Arbor 104,211

Michigan State followed the pattern set by Michigan's previous opponents by going to the air. The Spartans fired 46 passes, more than any Michigan team had ever faced before, but after a brief surge in the first period, the visitors were blanked over the final three periods. Michigan State opened the scoring with a field goal, but Rob Lytle, playing fullback, broke through the center and raced 75 yards for a touchdown, and 'M' never trailed. Lytle set a Big Ten record by gaining 180 in just 10 carries for an unprecedented 18-yard average. Rick Leach was 5 of 7 passing without an interception and the ground attack showed a net of 442 yards. Still, Coach Bo Schembechler was concerned over mistakes. "We had three things today I didn't like. We fumbled twice, giving them 10 points, and we didn't score when we were on the one-yard line. I was very, very distraught with that. I think, however, it's a very good win for us. We are not accustomed to scoring 42 points on Michigan State."

Michigan 38, Northwestern 7

October 16 Evanston 31,045

Michigan had one solid period, but it was enough to record the Wolverines' sixth straight win and safeguard their No. 1 ranking among college football teams. Bob Wood's field goal was the only scoring in the first period, but a 52-yard touchdown pass from Rick Leach to Jim Smith ignited a 28-point second quarter. Rob Lytle averaged an eye-popping 9.6 yards on 18 carries. "You get 31 up and I suppose you let up," said Coach Bo Schembechler, referring to Michigan's output of seven points in the second half. "We have had so many games like this, it's frightening. I'd love to get into a slugfest where a yard means a yard."

Michigan, playing on the road for the second straight week, received another remarkable performance from Rob Lytle in defeating a capable Indiana team. Lytle gained 175 yards, while Rick Leach was almost flawless at quarterback, directing Michigan to touchdowns the first three times it had possession. Michigan, leading the nation in rushing offense, picked up 383 yards on the ground and showed a total offense of 493 yards. Dwight Hicks returned to action at his free safety position for the first time since Stanford and Russell Davis saw extensive action at fullback with Lytle moving to tailback.

Michigan's Homecoming Game against Minnesota was extremely successful. The Wolverines scored in every period and the defense posted a fourth shutout for Michigan's eighth straight victory. Rob Lytle gained 129 yards, caught two passes and scored two touchdowns, while Rick Leach ran his pass completion string to eight straight with another perfect 4-for-4 afternoon. Leach also ran for 114 yards, averaging 11.4 on his option plays. It was another rainy afternoon, coming on Michigan's first ABC television appearance of the season. Rick Leach injured his thigh and would miss most of the practice sessions in the upcoming week.

Purdue 16, Michigan 14

November 6 W. Lafayette 57,205

Purdue, with a tradition for upsets, pulled off a shocker against the Wolverines whose tackling performance was anything but effective. Scott Dierking, coming back from an injury, scored two touchdowns and gained 162 yards rushing on 38 attempts to key the Purdue offense. Michigan, recovering a Purdue fumble, moved immediately to score and was moving again only to have a fumble stop the march. Purdue then scored to tie the game. Dierking's 25-yard run gave Purdue a 13-7 lead in the second period. Michigan took the second half kickoff and drove to Purdue's four with a first down, but three running plays and a fumble turned the ball over to the Boilermakers. The Wolverines came right back to score on Rick Leach's 64-yard pass to Jim Smith, the longest scoring pass of the season for Michigan, and Bob Wood's extra point proved a 14-13 edge. A fumble by Michigan was recovered on the Purdue 29 and the Boilermakers marched 65 yards to the Wolverine six. On fourth down Rock Supan booted a 23-yard field goal for a 16-14 Purdue lead. Michigan came back, driving from its 23 to the Purdue 19, but Wood's 37-yard field goal was wide with nine seconds left in the game. Lytle, who suffered a hip-pointer and missed the second period, gained 153 yards for Michigan. Calvin O'Neal had 24 tackles. Bo Schembechler said, "We knew they had good personnel and good coaching. It was on the road and there was a good atmosphere and a good field for Purdue. When you win a lot sometimes you forget how you got there. It all comes so naturally that you forget what it takes."

Michigan 38, Illinois 7

November 13 Ann Arbor 104,107

There were questions about Michigan's ability to bounce back and they were answered against Illinois. The Wolverines broke a 7-7 tie with two second-period touchdowns to set up a championship game the next week with Ohio State. Jim Smith caught six passes for 127 yards and Greg Morton had 15 tackles for Michigan. Punter John Anderson missed the game with a knee injury. It was Michigan's ninth straight home game before more than 100,000 fans. "This is a good win for us. It pleases me very much," said Bo Schembechler. "This team had all its hopes destroyed last week and it came back strong. We're already looking toward the game in Columbus."

Michigan 22, Ohio State 0

November 20 Columbus 88,250

Michigan faced a must-win situation in its final game against Ohio State. A tie was not good enough, so the Wolverines designed a two-point conversion play during the week and had it ready to go. The two Big Ten powers battled to a scoreless tie in the first half, but Michigan took the second half kickoff and went 80 yards to score on a 3-yard run by Russ Davis. Michigan's defense held and the Wolverines went 52 yards for another score, also on a three-yard Davis run. Conversion kick holder Jerry Zuver then raced around right end for two points and a 15-0 Michigan lead. Zuver's pass interception in the fourth period started another scoring drive from the OSU 15, this one coming on a three-yard run by Rob Lytle. The victory gave Michigan a share of the Big Ten title with Ohio State (both with 7-1 records), sending the Wolverines to the Rose Bowl and the Buckeyes to the Orange Bowl. The game was played in ideal weather before a record crowd of 88,250. Lytle, who gained 165 yards, ended the season as Michigan's all-time career (3,250 yards) and season (1,402) rushing leader and broke Tom Harmon and Bill Daley's 6.7 average per carry record with a 6.9 average. He was voted the "Offensive Champion of the Game" for an unprecedented fifth time in one season. A key to the win was Jim Smith, whose 91 yards in punt returns negated a brilliant 52.2-yard average by Tom Skladany and whose threat on long passes helped Michigan's running attack that netted 366 yards. Greg Morton led the defense with 14 tackles, while Zuver and James Pickens each intercepted a pass. "Our kids wanted to win this game so badly, I would have been sick if we had lost," said Bo Schembechler. "We were up against one of the best defenses in the nation, but I felt going into the game today there was no way they could stop us."

Rose Bowl
Southern Cal 14, Michigan 6

Jan. 1, 1977 Pasadena 106,182

Southern California extended its record of Rose Bowl victories to 16 with a strong defense and a superb passing performance by Vince Evans, defeating Michigan 14-6. Evans completed 14 of 20 passes for 181 yards, but all the scoring was done on the ground. Rob Lytle gave Michigan a 6-0 lead on a yard run in the second period, but USC went ahead 7-6 on Evans' rollout run from the one and Glen Walker's conversion kick. A fourth-period TD by freshman tailback Charles White, who rushed for 114 yards, sealed it for USC, but Michigan, behind two pass completions by Rick Leach, moved to the Trojan 17 before running out of downs. USC's Rickey Bell and M's Jerry Zuver both were injured early and missed the rest of the game.

'M' First to Top 100,000

Michigan became the first in sports history to average 100,000 fans in 1977 when the Wolverines played seven home games before 722,133 fans. That average of 103,159 was an increase of more than 35,000 from 1968, Don Canham's first season as athletic director.

The Wolverines have played before more than a million fans in each of the last two seasons, another first in college football.

Meet Michigan's President

Robben W. Fleming became The University of Michigan's ninth president Jan. 1, 1968, after three years as chancellor of the University of Wisconsin.

He was designated as one of 44 national leaders who "contribute most significantly to the thoughts and actions of American higher learning" in a recent poll. Fleming is chairman of the board of directors of the American Council on Education, the nation's most prestigious higher education body. He has been president of the Association of American Universities and the National Academy of Arbitrators, as well as a member of the board and the executive committee of the Council for Financial Aid to Education.

He is an executive committee member of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges. He is a trustee of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.

Recognized nationally as a labor arbitrator, President Fleming is a professor of law at Michigan. He is a consultant to various government agencies and was on the law faculties of Illinois and Wisconsin.

Nineteen colleges and universities have awarded him honorary degrees.

A Moment About Michigan

The University of Michigan had 35,990 students on the Ann Arbor campus last fall and a total enrollment of 45,823. It has 19 schools and colleges, including the Flint and Dearborn campuses. Its 1976-77 budget totaled $412,015,186.

But—Michigan is far more than numbers.

It is a very special institution, academically. A survey of deans reported "Five universities with outstanding reputations — Berkeley, Chicago, Columbia, Harvard and Michigan — have the greatest numbers of top-ranking professional schools." A Los Angeles Times education writer summarized the survey by noting, "The University of Michigan was rated in the top 10 in 13 of the 18 professional areas surveyed, the best overall record. Berkeley's eight ratings were next, followed by Columbia, Harvard, The University of Chicago and The University of Minnesota with seven apiece."

That academic standing prevails in countless ways on the Ann Arbor campus, as students and faculty go about their quest for excellence. Research geared to society's present and future needs is performed in laboratories and offices throughout the campus. Indeed, the University's location has attracted many research industries to Ann Arbor.

Campus research spans the spectrum of human activity, ranging from one of the earliest warnings that continued use of an aerosol propellant almost certainly would damage the Earth's ozone layer to development of life-saving techniques in the Medical School. Other Michigan research includes the invention of practical holography (lensless three dimensional photography), the nationally respected quarterly survey of consumer attitudes, and the Middle English Dictionary used worldwide by scholars.

Just as the sun never set (in former years) on the British Empire, it never sets now on Michigan's alumni body. Some 284,000 alumni are scattered throughout the world, with the largest concentration (103,688) living in Michigan. The second place state is California, with 16,942. Many NASA astronauts received College of Engineering degrees before going on to their other-worldly pursuits. Alumni include a former president (Gerald Ford, who was Most Valuable Player of the 1934 Wolverines) and many federal and state officials.

Many faculty members hold important positions in their professional organizations, including the presidency of the American Association of University Professors, American Psychological Association, Association of American Law Schools, Society of Biblical Literature, and Society of American Archivists.

The University of Michigan is proud of both its leadership in athletics and its reputation as one of America's foremost institutions of higher education.

Marcus Plant

Faculty Representative

Marcus Plant has been Michigan's faculty representative to the Big Ten since 1955 and has served on the Board in Control of Intercollegiate Athletics since 1949.

Plant has been a leader in amateur athletics nationally, serving as president of the NCAA (1967-68) and currently is a member of the Olympic executive committee.

Canham Keys Broad Success In 'M' Athletics

Michigan Athletic Director Don Canham often is invited by universities to discuss the administration of intercollegiate athletics. His first suggestion is to "surround yourself with capable people."

Building administrative and coaching staffs has been a priority since Canham was appointed athletic director, just the fifth in 'M' history, in 1968. Two of Canham's former assistants, Bump Elliott and Dave Strack, became athletic directors, while five assistant football coaches went on to head coaching positions. Promotions and retirements have forced complete turnovers in all but two sports.

Despite these changes, the Wolverines have won 31 of their 199 Big Ten titles over this nine-year period. Last season the football team won the Big Ten title and went to the Rose Bowl, the cross-country team won its third straight title, the basketball team won the conference title and made a record fourth straight trip to the NCAA tournament, the hockey team battled to the finals of the NCAA Championships, the tennis team won its 10th straight title and a berth in the NCAAs, while the baseball team, after two straight titles, finished second, but still competed in the NCAA.

In addition to this across-the-board excellence in competition, Michigan offers one of the finest athletic plants in the nation as Canham has earmarked more than $4 million in expansion and improvement of facilities. This was totally funded by athletic department revenues.

Don Canham

He also spearheaded the $7.2 million construction of two recreational sports buildings (financed by the University), transferred the IM Building to the University, financed a $140,000 renovation of the old ice arena, turning it into a general sports building. Michigan now has 333,000 square feet of indoor recreational sports space, more than any university in the nation.

Nationally, Canham serves on various Big Ten and NCAA committees, including the important NCAA television and promotions committees. The former Michigan track coach has directed a football promotional campaign that has helped Michigan break all NCAA attendance records.

Canham operated a highly successful sports equipment business that was placed in trust upon his appointment. He was a national high jump champion, captain of the Wolverines track team and as Michigan's track coach won 12 Big Ten titles.

Another Opening, Another Show

Like Broadway, the fall season in the Michigan Stadium brings another new series of shows, featuring the Michigan Marching Band under the direction of Professor George Cavender.

International in reputation, few bands are emulated, copied and imitated throughout the world as is the Michigan Marching Band. Shows, steps, ideas, and even its uniforms are copied.

Last year the band appeared on national television twice and as usual set West Coast audiences agog with its new and unusual presentations at the Rose Bowl. To quote the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner of Sunday, Jan. 2, 1977, "Michigan sure won the intermission. Sure U.S.C. has a fine Marching Band. But Michigan, Oh!, Michigan! Prof. Cavender has far more imagination and a truly creative approach."

The first show of 1977 (Duke) will pay tribute to the various successful athletic teams at Michigan in 1976-77. The Navy game will be the 29th annual Band Day. Due to an unprecedented demand for season tickets, Band Day this year has been cut from 12,000 to 5,000 persons on the field. The Texas A&M game will feature a show called "The Wizard of Oz," and during the Wisconsin game a tribute of 100 years of recording will be held and the immortal jazz great Eubie Blake will be presented to the audience. The Iowa game as a part of Homecoming activities offers the Michigan Band Alumni who return for the "Blast from the Past." Ernest Jones, distinguished alumnus, will be guest conductor on this occasion as the Michigan Band and Alumni Bands salute the 100th anniversary of the birth of Louis Elbel, composer of our fight song "The Victors."

Michigan Football Awards

Each year, three special awards are given to players on the Michigan football team. The awards are the John F. Maulbetsch Award, the Meyer Morton Award, and the Frederick C. Matthaei Scholarship Award.

Maulbetsch Award

The John F. Maulbetsch Award is given to the freshman football candidate after spring practice on the basis of desire, character, capacity for leadership and future success both on and off the gridiron. It was established by Frederick C. Matthaei in 1954 in honor of the late John F. Maulbetsch, All-American halfback on the 1914 team.

Meyer Morton Award

The Meyer Morton Award is given to the football player who shows greatest development and most promise as a result of the annual spring practice. The award is given in honor of the late Meyer Morton, noted Big Ten official.

Matthaei Award

The Frederick C. Matthaei Award is given to the junior-to-be gridder who has displayed leadership, drive, and achievement on the athletic field and in the classroom. The award was established by Frederick C. Matthaei in 1968.
